

FLORIDA MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY
STUDENT RESEARCH EXHIBITS AT DICKINSON HALL

The Florida Museum of Natural History research building at Dickinson Hall exhibits posters of student research guided by a Florida Museum mentor. The poster exhibits also include specimens, artifacts, and research tools from the Florida Museum collections. The exhibits are displayed temporarily in the Dickinson Hall East Window and permanently on the Florida Museum Student Research website at http://www.flmnh.ufl.edu/research/student\_posters.htm. Preference is given to students of the University of Florida, but students from other institutions who are working with Florida Museum researchers are welcome to apply.

Submission Process:

- Inquiries and proposal submissions must be made to the Chair of the University Teaching Committee of the Florida Museum of Natural History coordinates exhibit installation.
- An e-mail/letter of support from a Florida Museum mentor must accompany proposals.
- Submissions are accepted at any time. Solicitations will also be posted periodically on the Florida Museum student list-serve (students@flmnh.ufl.edu). Current rotation is one exhibit per semester.
- Themed exhibits are encouraged as are exhibits by multiple student researchers.
- Posters presented in other venues are welcome (see specifications below).

Exhibition Specifications

- Posters should be no more than 60 inches wide with a recommended font size of no less than 20 points. Lamination improves presentation but is not necessary. Florida Museum and University of Florida affiliation should be clearly noted on the poster.
- Poster exhibits may include materials from the Florida Museum collections. Display space for exhibit objects is approximately 60 inches wide by 90 inches high.
- Exhibit items must be approved by the Florida Museum mentor and associated program/range curator and collection managers as suitable for the humidity/UV conditions of the East Window.
