D. Treasure Hunt

Focus Question: Did you provide enough detail in your scientific illustration to identify your original specimen?

Directions: Using your lovely scientific illustration, find your original specimen among the many treasure gems around the class.

Reflection: Quickwrite in your notebook

1. How well did your scientific illustration support you in being able to find your original specimen?

2. What would you do differently for the next time you create a scientific illustration based off of this experience?