

Corporate Membership at the Florida Museum:

Together We'll Do Great Things

Local businesses play a vital role in helping the Florida Museum inspire people to care about life on Earth.

Corporate Members provide funding for ground-breaking research and conservation initiatives, support outreach efforts and contribute to innovative exhibitions. Join today to be part of something great!

A few great things about us:

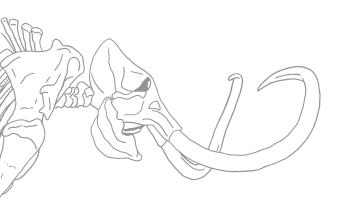

- With more than 40 million specimens in the collections, the Florida Museum is one of the largest research-based museums in the world.
- Florida Museum scientists conduct research on every continent.
- The Florida Museum has more than 200,000 visitors annually, including 14,000 school children and 15,000 University of Florida students.
- Nearly 1,000 K-6 grade students attend the Museum's camps and classes.
- More than 500 volunteers serve the equivalent of nearly 18 full-time employees.
- 120 middle and high school students participate in the Junior Volunteer program and work alongside Museum staff in the collections, exhibitions and programs.

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Three levels of corporate giving offer something for every business, with great benefits for the company and its employees. Examples include:

- Recognition as a Corporate Member
- A Museum program of your choice designed for your employees
- Information table at Signature Museum Events
- Discounted Museum rentals for private events
- Exclusive exhibition and event sponsorship opportunities

Demonstrate your commitment to inspiring people to care about life on Earth with a Corporate Membership.
